DEVELOPER NOTE
This document is the consolidated content and placement guide for the ARC website. Please use the supplied information as the source of truth, keep the site as a clean one-page scrolling website, and place each leader's email address with the correct biography as specified below. If any detail appears inconsistent or a technical decision affects the agreed scope, please check with Upside before publishing.

1. Project overview and build direction

Build a professional, welcoming, mobile-responsive one-page WordPress website for the African Restorative Centre (ARC). The website should introduce the Centre, communicate its vision and work, present its learning programmes and services, introduce both Co-Directors, and make it easy for visitors to enquire.

- Website/domain: AfricanRestorative.co.za
- Organisation name on the website: African Restorative Centre (ARC).
- One-page scrolling layout with clear navigation links to page sections.
- Use the content and hierarchy in this document. Minor layout refinements are welcome where they improve readability and mobile presentation.
- Do not invent testimonials, impact statistics, programme dates, fees, qualifications, or additional services.
- Use the leadership photographs supplied separately by Upside. The photographs are considered suitable for use; if you believe any image needs a technical crop or adjustment for the layout, advise Upside.
- The optional ARC hero banner supplied by Upside may be used at your professional discretion. It is a design reference/asset, not a requirement to reproduce it exactly.
- Please send the working preview to Upside for review before the website is launched.

2. Recommended one-page section order

Order	Section	Content
01	Hero / Home	Vision statement, main headline, short introduction and enquiry/programme buttons.
02	About the Centre	Who ARC is, vision, mission, purpose and values.
03	Programmes	Three featured learning programmes first, followed by five additional programmes.
04	Other Services	African Knowledge Gatherings; Coaching & Counselling; African Marriage Preparation.
05	Leadership	Two equal Co-Director profiles, each with the matching photograph and email address.
06	Contact & Get Involved	General contact details, phone/WhatsApp, physical address and enquiry call to action.

3. Hero / Home section

Vision line

Ancient Future Reclaimed.

Main headline

Reclaiming African Knowledge. Restoring the Self. Building Flourishing Communities.

Suggested introductory copy

The African Restorative Centre explores and applies Africa's indigenous knowledge systems to support self-knowledge, personal restoration and the development of flourishing individuals and communities. Through learning programmes, knowledge gatherings and personal guidance, ARC creates opportunities for people to reconnect with knowledge, identity and a deeper understanding of themselves and the world around them.

Suggested buttons: "Explore Our Programmes" and "Contact ARC".

4. About the Centre

Who we are

The African Restorative Centre is a learning and development initiative grounded in African indigenous knowledge and self-knowledge. The Centre seeks to create opportunities for individuals and communities to explore African knowledge systems, deepen their understanding of self and contribute to more flourishing ways of living.

Vision

Ancient Future Reclaimed.

Mission

To provide accessible, high-quality learning experiences grounded in African indigenous knowledge and self-knowledge, supporting personal restoration, critical thinking, creativity and the development of flourishing individuals and communities.

Purpose and objectives

1. Heal people's minds from intergenerational trauma systems brought by colonialism, capitalism, discrimination and evangelisation.
2. Methodologically examine Africa's ageless, timeless sciences of self-knowledge to address the crisis of identity and self-knowledge dented by intergenerational trauma systems.
3. Create space and time for the re-emergence of a free uMuntu/Motho who is self-knowing, authentic, prosperous and self-actualised.
4. Facilitate the practical application of Africa's ageless, timeless indigenous knowledge systems for the development of flourishing societies.

Values

Excellence • Inclusivity • Innovation • Integrity • Community • Lifelong Learning

5. Learning programmes

Present the first three programmes as the featured programmes, in the exact order below. The South African Townships: A Place of Non-Beings must appear alongside the first two featured programmes, not in the additional-programmes list. After the three featured programmes, list the remaining five programmes.

FEATURED 1 — Resetting the Mind

This programme explores how to liberate the mind from intergenerational trauma systems associated with colonialism, capitalism, discrimination and evangelisation.

Topics include:

- What is the Mind?
- What is the Will and its Role?
- Why do people engage in Negative Behaviour?
- Interactions of the Brain
- Ideas on Behaviour in Ancient Africa
- Living in Darkness
- Aspirations of the Spirit
- Birthing of the New Self

FEATURED 2 — God and the Human Mind

This programme aims to reset and empower people's minds on the existence of God and the whole of Creation.

Topics include:

- The Causality of God
- The Wholeness of Creation
- Mind and Body
- Space, Time and Eternity
- The Mechanics of Sense Perception
- The Dependency of Visual Perception

FEATURED 3 — The South African Townships: A Place of Non-Beings

This programme examines the township experience and the systems and influences that have shaped township life.

Topics include:

- Origins and Purpose of the Township
- The Township Education System
- The Township Economy
- The Cultivation of Self-Hate
- The Township and Religion
- Sound (Music) as Sonic Weapon

Additional programmes

Knowing the Neter and Neterets (god & goddesses) of Kemet

Participants gain knowledge of the interconnectedness, interrelatedness and interdependence of all created things and the elements of creation.

The African Tree of Life

This programme develops knowledge and understanding of the spiritual world and the different kinds and types of spirits at play in life, helping participants navigate their lives while balancing the natural spirits in the universe.

African Cosmologies

Explores ancient African cosmologies and worldviews as natural blueprints for personal and collective awakening, awareness and transformation.

African Sciences of Time

Explores the months and seasons of the African year as seen and practised by the ancients according to calendars and astronomy.

Conscious Breathing

Explores how breathing works and how poor breathing can negatively affect one's life.

Presentation note: The website can use concise programme cards with a short description and an enquiry link/button. Do not add dates, prices, enrolment deadlines or delivery formats; these have not been supplied.

6. Other services and activities

African Knowledge Gatherings

African Knowledge Gatherings are sessions that create space for people to engage with African knowledge, including gatherings that may incorporate drums and other cultural elements. Sessions typically run for approximately one to two hours and are open to youth, young adults, community members and anyone interested in learning.

Coaching & Counselling

Solving People's Problems the African Way

ARC offers guidance and support informed by African knowledge and approaches to personal and relationship growth.

Featured service: African Marriage Preparation

Marriage preparation support for individuals and couples preparing for marriage.

ARC also welcomes enquiries from individuals seeking guidance and support with other personal growth and relationship growth matters. Contact the Centre to discuss your needs and find out what support is available.

7. Leadership — Meet the People Behind ARC

Present both leaders as Co-Directors with equal visual prominence. Use each person's own photograph and place the correct email address directly with that person's profile. Do not swap the email addresses.

Norman Mongalo Raphahlela (also known as Senb)

Role: Co-Director, African Restorative Centre

Email: senb@AfricanRestorative.co.za

Norman Mongalo Raphahlela, also known as Senb, is an experienced minister, educator, theological scholar and African indigenous knowledge practitioner. He has served for 38 years as a Supernumerary Methodist Minister and has held a range of leadership, teaching and chaplaincy roles.

Born and raised in Alexandra Township, he obtained his first theological qualification from the Federal Theological Seminary of Southern Africa in Pietermaritzburg and pursued further studies at the University of Pretoria and the University of South Africa (UNISA). His current UNISA studies in the Department of Old Testament and Ancient Studies explore the reading of Exodus 20 in African Indigenous Knowledge Systems through the African principle of Ma'at.

His ministry journey includes serving as Superintendent of several Methodist circuits, Director of the Education for Ministry and Mission Unit at the Methodist Connexional Office, Senior Lecturer and Dean of Chapel at Seth Mokitimi Methodist Seminary, and District Vice Chair in the former Kimberly Namibia Bloemfontein District, where he initiated the renaming to Mokala-Montle District.

In police chaplaincy, he served as General Secretary of the African Police Chaplaincy Association (APCA), Deputy Chair of the Human Rights and Code of Conduct Programme of SARPCCO, and as an APCA delegate to the World Police Chaplains Conference. His studies at the Amen-Ra Institute include African Indigenous Sciences of Consciousness, African Ontology, Cosmology, Axiology, Epistemology, Teleology and Taxonomy.

He is the Founding Director of the Know Thyself Institute, whose vision is "Reclaiming the Ancient Future", and currently serves as Co-Director of the African Restorative Centre.

Reverend Maphampha Rudolph Hlaka

Role: Co-Director, African Restorative Centre

Email: hlaka@AfricanRestorative.co.za

Reverend Maphampha Rudolph Hlaka is an educator, ordained minister, marriage officer and marriage coach with more than 24 years of experience in ministry, pastoral leadership and supporting individuals and families.

He holds a Bachelor of Theology degree and a Higher Education Diploma from the University of Limpopo. He currently works as a teacher at Kagiso Second School, bringing his experience in education and personal development into his professional and community work.

Before his current teaching role, Reverend Hlaka served the Department of Correctional Services for 15 years as a Spiritual Care Coordinator, providing spiritual guidance and support within the correctional environment.

His ministry and leadership journey spans more than two decades. He has spent 14 years in church leadership, serving in pastoral roles, leading congregations and contributing to church administration. His leadership experience also includes serving as Chairperson of the Circuit.

As a marriage officer and marriage coach, he brings additional experience in marriage preparation, relationship guidance and supporting individuals and couples.

As Co-Director of the African Restorative Centre, Reverend Hlaka contributes his experience in education, ministry, spiritual care, pastoral leadership and relationship development to the Centre's work and its vision of building flourishing individuals and communities.
